1. The above examination is scheduled to commence on Wednesday, 26th February 2020.
2. Applications are invited by me from medical officers in the state and non-state sectors possessing the following requirements to sit the Selection Examination for enrolment to the in-service training programme in Postgraduate Diploma in Tuberculosis & Chest Diseases.
 - (a) A medical degree registered with the Sri Lanka Medical Council;
 - (b) Satisfactory completion of internship acceptable to the Sri Lanka Medical Council;
 - (c) Satisfactory completion of one year of post internship in medical practice in a University/ Public Sector Institution/ Non-state Sector in Sri Lanka acceptable to the PGIM as at the date of closure of applications, ie. 07th February 2020.

Note:

The criteria prescribed in paragraph (c) must have been satisfied by the applicants by the date of closure of applications, provided that where a short-fall has occurred due to any reasons including sick, maternity or other leave, the doctor concerned should complete such shortfall in order to become eligible to apply for the Selection Examination.

3. The applicants to be eligible for enrollment to the training programme should pass the selection examination. The selection examination shall consist of a MCQ Paper. The content areas would comprise respiratory anatomy and physiology, and undergraduate knowledge of general clinical medicine. Special emphasis is given to assessing knowledge on tuberculosis. For further clarifications please refer the new Prospectus available on the PGIM web site.
4. The selection examination would comprise of a one hour True/False-type MCQ paper, containing 20 stems with each question having 5 responses (a total of 100 questions/responses). The content areas from which the questions are based on, is described in the Prospectus 2016.
5. The candidates who pass the selection examination by obtaining 50% or more from the MCQ paper only shall be considered for enrolment to the course.

6. Only a maximum of 70 candidates who pass the Selection Examination will be enrolled in the training programme. Placements will be made purely in the order of merit. The details are available at the Examination Branch office of the PGIM and on the PGIM website under “General Regulations and Guidelines 2020”. The 70 MOH candidate’s marks will be taken as a cut-off line and the candidates in sections 8, 9, 10 and 11 will have to obtain a mark similar to this or above to be offered a place in the training programme.
7. The final number of available training placements will be determined based on the total number of candidates above the cut-off line.
8. All candidates attached to Other Government Ministries “who pass the selection exam and who are above the cut – off line” will be enrolled in the training programme in order of the merit.
9. All candidates from State Universities “who pass the selection exam and who are above the cut- off line” will be enrolled in the training programme in order of the merit
10. All candidates from the Armed Forces (including Police) “who pass the selection exam and who are above the cut- off line” will be enrolled in the training programme in order of the merit.
11. All Non-State Sector candidates “who pass the selection exam and who are above the cut-off line” will be enrolled in the training programme. They will be placed below the order of merit for candidates from the MOH, other Government Ministries, State Universities and Armed Forces (including Police) based on the merit within the non-state sector category.
12. Following the examination and release of results the above numbers shall not be changed nor shall requests for such changes be entertained.
13. Each year only the scheduled selection examination in the approved examination calendar shall be held. No repeat or additional examination will be held.
14. The allocation of training units will be done as described in “General Regulations & Guideline – 2020” and according to the approved procedure by the PGIM based on merit. The allocated training unit/s shall not be changed for personal reasons.
15. When a candidate is selected, he/she should register in the same year. If this is not done another eligible candidate will be selected. And the candidate, who refused, will not be permitted to register in the programme in a subsequent year with the same results unless a valid medical certificate from a consultant acceptable to the PGIM is submitted.
16. The prescribed fees for the examination for candidates in the state sector are as follows:
