- Notice -

Please be notified that all the details should be filled in the Supplication Form. If any one fails to give the details in full, the application will be rejected. Further, you are kindly informed to complete your name correctly in all three languages i.e. English, Sinhala and Tamil as the Original Degree Certificate cannot be altered once it has been written by the University of Colombo.

Under exceptional circumstances, such as those who are on overseas leave, can send someone along with a Request Letter (request letter must be written by the degree/diploma holder.) providing details of the bearer and his/her specimen signature attested by a lawyer. (if the degree holder is on overseas leave the attestation should be made by a lawyer in overseas)

The degree/diploma holder should state that he/she is aware that the PGIM does not take the responsibility for any damage or loss of the degree certificate.

No degree/diploma holders could participate at the Convocation until he/she submits his/her hard bound copy of the Dissertation/Thesis/Research Projects. (This is applicable only for the degree/diploma holders who are requested to submit Dissertation/ Thesis/ Research Projects.)
