Note:

The criteria prescribed in paragraph (c) must be to be satisfied by the applicants by the date of closure of applications. Where a short-fall has occurred due to any reasons including sick, maternity or other leave, the doctor concerned should have completed such shortfall in order to become eligible to apply for the Selection Examination.

3. The applicants should pass the selection examination to be eligible for enrolment to the training programme. The current format of the Selection Examination is described in the Masters of Forensic Medicine Prospectus, 2020.
4. The Selection Examination consists of .
 - MCQ Paper of 2 hours duration which consists of 40 questions of the true /false type.
 - The Candidates who pass the selection examination by obtaining 50% or more of the total aggregate shall be considered for enrollment to the course.

5. Requirements to pass the Selection Examination.

To pass the Selection Examination, a candidate must obtain 50% or more.

6. Only a maximum of 11 candidates from the Ministry of Health (MOH) who pass the Selection Examination will be enrolled in the training programme. Placements will be made purely on the order of merit. The details are available at the Examination Branch office of the PGIM and on the PGIM website under “General Regulations and Guidelines 2023”. The 11th MOH candidate's marks will be taken as a cut-off line and the candidates in sections 08, 09, 10 and 11 will have to obtain a mark similar to this or above to be offered a place in the training programme.
7. The final number of available training placements will be determined based on the total number of candidates above the cut-off line.
8. All candidates attached to Other Government Ministries who pass the selection examination and are above the cut-off line will be enrolled in the training programme in the order of merit.
9. All candidates attached to the State Universities who pass the selection examination and are above the cut-offline will be enrolled in the training programme in the order of merit.
10. All candidates from the Armed Forces (including Police) who pass the selection examination and are above the cut-off line will be enrolled in the training programme in order of the merit.
11. All Non – State Sector candidates who pass the selection examination and who are above the cut-off line will be enrolled in the training programme. They will be placed below the order of merit for candidates from the MOH, Other Government Ministries, State Universities and Armed Forces (Including Police) based on the merit within the non – state sector category.
12. The above numbers shall not be changed, nor shall requests for such changes be entertained following the examination and after the release of results.
13. Each year only the scheduled Selection Examination in the approved examination calendar will be held. No repeat or additional examinations will be held.
14. The allocation of training units will be done as described in “General Regulation and Guidelines 2023” which is available on the PGIM web site: <https://pgim.cmb.ac.lk/> The allocated training unit/s shall not be changed for personal reasons.

15. When a candidate is selected, he/she should register in the same year. If a candidate fails to do so, another eligible candidate will be selected. Any candidate who refuses to register in the current year, will not be permitted to register in the programme in a subsequent year with the same results unless a valid medical certificate from a consultant acceptable to the PGIM is submitted.
16. A fulltime release from the candidate's current employer—i.e. Ministry of Health/ Other Government Ministries, Universities or by the Armed Forces- is a prerequisite for enrollment in all fulltime training programmes. It may be necessary to sign a bond before such enrollment if it is required by the candidate's employer.
17. The prescribed fees for the examination for candidates from the state sector are as follows:
