Furthermore, such candidate should complete Stage 1 (complete the pre-MD training appointments recommended by the Board of Study), Stage 2 (be successful at the MD Examination), Stage 3 (complete the post-MD training appointments recommended by the Board of Study), and Stage 4 (be successful at the PBCA) in order to be eligible for board certification.

3. The applicants should pass the selection examination to be eligible for enrolment to the training programme. The current format of the Selection Examination is described in the General Medicine Prospectus, 2016 and amendment.
4. The examination consists of a written component and a practical component. The written component will be held first. Candidates who are successful at the written component will be eligible to sit the practical component. The applicants should pass both components at the same sitting to be eligible for enrolment to the training programme. The current format of the selection examination is described in the Prospectus.

4.1. The written component

The written component consists of the following written question papers:

Paper 1: Biomedical Sciences Paper

The Biomedical Sciences Paper consists of True/False-type Multiple Choice Questions (MCQs). It contains 60 stems, each with 5 items, constituting a total of 300 responses. The total duration of the paper is 3 hours.

Paper 2: General Medicine Paper

The General Medicine Paper is a 3 hour paper, and consists of two subcomponents :-

- a) A 2-hour True/False-type MCQ paper in medicine, containing 40 stems with each question having 5 responses (a total of 200 questions/responses).
- b) A 1-hour, Single Best Answer-type MCQ paper with 30 questions, each question giving 5 possible answers to select the best one from.

To be successful in the written component, a candidate must obtain a minimum aggregate of 50%, with a minimum of 40% in Paper 1 and a minimum of 50% in Paper 2.

Only the candidates who have passed the written component will be eligible to sit the practical component.

4.2. The practical component

The practical component consists of an Objective Structured Clinical Examination (OSCE)- type practical examination. It has 12 stations, each lasting 5 minutes.

To be successful at the practical component, a candidate must:

- Obtain a minimum mark of 40% of available marks in each domain (A-G) and
- Obtain a minimum overall mark of 50%.

5. The applicants should pass both written and practical components in the same sitting of the Selection Examination to be eligible for enrolment to the training.

6. The MCQ Papers will be held on 27th and 28th October, 2026. The OSCE component will be held on 17th, 18th and 19th November, 2026. All candidates will be informed in writing, their performance at the MCQ paper.
7. Only a maximum of 57 candidates from the Ministry of Health (MOH) who pass the selection examination will be enrolled in the training programme. The 57th MOH candidate's marks will be taken as a cut-off and the candidates in sections 10,11,12 and 13 will have to obtain a mark similar to this or above to be offered a place in the training programme. Placements will be made purely in the order of merit. The details are available on the PGIM website under "General Regulations and Guidelines 2026".
8. The candidates in sections 10, 11, 12, 13 will have to obtain a mark similar to this or above to be offered a place in the training programme. All Non-State Sector candidates will be placed below the order of merit.
9. The final number of available training placements will be determined based on the total number of candidates above the cut-off line.
10. All candidates attached to Other Government Ministries who pass the selection examination and are above the cut-off line will be enrolled in the training programme in the order of merit.
